

MARTIN GARCIA (DJ Set)

Since his beginnings as a professional DJ, Martin Garcia's artistic evolution was mainly lead by the British dance music industry, which he slowly incorporated and adapted to the local scene.

After playing in different clubs of Buenos Aires, his sessions at internationally acclaimed Clubland nights at Pacha made him acquire a weight of his own. From that moment on, he's played many times alongside Sasha, Nick Warren, Jimmy Van M. and Danny Howells, among other artists.

A smooth mixing technique and the details of his sound selections have gained him a huge recognition from the great number of progressive house fans along Argentina and Latin America. A success he's also achieved as a producer, either individually or together as a powerful duo with Hernan Cattaneo, releasing on labels such as Perfecto, Shinichi and Bedrock.

In 2005 Martin was the first guest DJ at London's Kiss FM and he entered number 50 at DJ Mag's ranking. November and December saw him touring with John Digweed around South America, where he's played many times before in Peru, Brazil, Chile, Uruguay, Paraguay and Colombia.

Present each year inside the line up of the famous Creamfields Buenos Aires, he's usually a headliner in such events as Moonpark parties and 1Live! In 2006 he's already played at East Fest Punta del Este, Uruguay's glamour summer spot, Southfest's third edition (he played the first one too) and he also made his debut at Miami's Winter Music Conference with a memorable back to back with Hernan Cattaneo and a special set for Frisky Radio.

When not working on his music (or involved in other artists productions as in Renaissance's Hernan Cattaneo Sequential), Martin plays his distinctive progressive, electro, breaks and house blends in clubs across the country and through his weekly journey show on Metrodance 95.1 FM.
